

Style

It's a Mod, Mod, Mod, Mod World

East London, circa 1967. Armed with only his trademark gentility and a well-cut suit, Sidney Poitier's Mark Thackeray takes on a classroom of troubled teens in To Sir, with Love. While a pre-Fame song-and-dance number helped propel English pop singer Lulu into temporary stardom, it was Poitier's classy gent that drew audiences to the theaters—that and the abundance of kicky miniskirts. When it comes to mixing suave with street, these dashing icons excel, evoking personal style that is part saucy, part proper, and totally brilliant. —Jenni Witt

GETTY IMAGES

J.Crew Great Point Messenger Bag
$95, www.jcrew.com

Da-Nang Cotton Woven Shirt
$128, www.couture-candy.com

By Boe Red Hoop Earrings
$54, www.famousstyle.com

Smythson Wafer Diary
$45, www.smythson.com

Penguin Ebenezer Shirt
$59, www.revolveclothing.com

Charlotte Ronson Vest with Pom Pom Tie $132
www.80spurple.com

Gap Button Wool Mini Skirt
$58, www.gap.com

Ben Sherman New Union Jack Bifold Wallet
$25
www.urban-outfitters.com

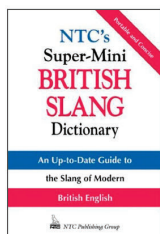

J.Crew Argyle Knee Socks
$12.50,
www.jcrew.com

Stock Manchester Blazer
$99, www.urbanoutfitters.com

Pom Pom Brim Beanie
$24.50, www.gap.com

NTC's Super-Mini British Slang Dictionary
$5.95, www.amazon.com

Levi's Skinny 511 Jeans
$44, www.levistore.com

Aerosoles Pretty Up Boots
$75, www.aerosoles.com

WeSC The June Woven Scarf
$30, www.karmaloop.com

Violet Crumble
$21 for 24, www.candydirect.com