Directions: Create a one paragraph statement that explains the creative choices you made in creating your self portrait. Make sure you explain what character traits you attempted to get across in your painting. Explain whether or not they are examples of direct or indirect characterization.

Criteria For Success
• The artwork has a title.
  • You explain what style of portraiture you chose and why you made that choice.
  • You explain the characterization you hope the observer of your artwork should take away from your portrait.
  • You explain how you used both direct and indirect characterization.
    • You compose a strong topic sentence and conclusion.
    • You pay attention to spelling, grammar, and sentence composition.
