

Writing Feedback Tracker

By Emily Culp

Name: _____

Assignment Name	Feedback Received	Goal for Future
Write it multiple times or draw an arrow down if you have multiple pieces of feedback for one assignment.	Put what the teacher (or peer) communicated into clear language. Only put one suggestion per row.	State a specific action you will take next time to improve. Do NOT say, "add detail," "write more," "check work," "elaborate" or other vague comments.

Examples

Assignment	Feedback Received	Goal for Future
Write it multiple times if you have multiple pieces of feedback for one assignment.	Put what the teacher (or peer) communicated into clear language. Only put one suggestion per row.	State a specific action you will take next time to improve. Do NOT say, “add detail,” “write more,” “check work,” “elaborate” or other vague comments.
“Paragraph Assignment”	Add author in restate step.	I will always add the title AND AUTHOR in my topic sentence.
“Paragraph Assignment”	Cite evidence!	I will check that I have the page or paragraph number in parentheses after my quote before submitting.
“Paragraph Assignment”	Lead into/introduce quotes by saying who is talking and what’s going on. Example: Before classes start, Victor thinks, “...	I will put phrases like “The text states,” and “The protagonist says,” before the quote. I will try to give some background about what’s happening in that part of the narrative.