The facilitators were knowledgable and effective.

The goals and outcomes of the session(s) were clear.

The strategies used by the facilitators were appropriate in helping me to attain the goal(s) and outcome(s) of the learning experience.

The materials and resources were adequate and useful.

The level of difficulty of the content was appropriate.

This learning experience offered opportunities for me to develop mastery of my craft.

This learning experience offered opportunities for me to develop in my identity as an educator.

This learning experience offered opportunities for me to express my learning and develop my creativity.

This learning experience offered sufficient and appropriate opportunities for collaboration.

I gained knowledge and skills that I can implement in my work.