Personal Project Mini Planner

Student Name(s) ____________________________, ____________________________

Title of Project ____________________________
Topic ______________________________________
Central Idea/Enduring understanding
____________________________________________
____________________________________________

PYP Transdisciplinary theme
____________________________________________
____________________________________________

Lines of Inquiry
1. ______________________________________
2. ______________________________________
3. ______________________________________

Transdisciplinary Skills:
____________________________________________
____________________________________________

Learner Profile: Choose two and tell why you chose them
____________________________________________
____________________________________________

Attitudes: Choose two and tell why
____________________________________________
____________________________________________

Explain why you chose this topic
____________________________________________
____________________________________________

What will your cumulative (large) assessment product(s) be? How will you show what you’ve learned?
____________________________________________
____________________________________________

Copyright ©2015. Wildwood World Magnet School. Chicago, IL. Used with permission. For more information go to edutopia.org/school/wildwood-ib-world-magnet-school
What are formative (smaller assessments along the way) For example: you can decide to do a vocabulary page, chart, time line, turn in research notes, etc.